Dear [Child's Name],

Many decorative materials today, including ones we use at home, contain phthalates, which are endocrine disruptors that can affect our health. These substances are often used in personal care products, such as cosmetics, perfumes, and lotions, as well as in household items like detergents and cleaning supplies. They have been linked to a variety of health problems, including reproductive issues, developmental delays, and even certain types of cancer. That's why it's important to be aware of what we're putting into our bodies and homes, and to make informed choices about the products we use.
