

VIII. KALANDYK BAKERY – NOW GRENA STORE

The building that once housed the Kalandyk bakery, like many others in Błazowa, was originally Jewish-owned. The bakery operated on the ground floor, while the apartments were located upstairs. It was in business from the mid-1930s until the late 1970s. Many locals still remember the unforgettable taste of their bread, particularly the famous "Kaiser rolls." Today, the site of the Kalandyk bakery is home to the "Grena" store, where the back room once held dough mixers. The area that now serves as a hairdressing salon was previously a warehouse and coal yard. The original sign and price list for the bakery are on display at the Błazowa library.

Józef Kalandyk was born in 1913 and passed away on 10 December 1979. Aniela Kalandyk was born in 1912 and died on 22 February 1988. Both are buried in the Błazowa cemetery.
